A GOD who is only supreme in one place and at fixed times—A Sunday God, a church-or-God-is not really a living God, but only a dead fetish and thing of naught.

A God who is not everywhere, at all times, and over all things, can't be a God over anything, at any time or anywhere.

A power who does not direct our work as well as inspire our worship, who is not at our seat in our office as in our seat at church, and who does not preside at the council chamber as well as at the Communion Table, is not a Power or God at all.

No Trouble to Keep Skin Free From Hairs

(The Modern Beauty.)
There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered salicylic acid with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for 2 to 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real salicylic acid—Adv.

Weddings.

Mrs. Katherine F. Brown and J. W. Welch were married Thursday of last week in Sioux City, Iowa. Mrs. Brown is the mother of Mrs. C. C. Golden and Mrs. Richard Shen, of El Paso. She has been visiting them for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Welch will spend a short honeymoon traveling through the east and will make their home in Sioux City.

Denver papers have been received telling of the marriage of Miss Sarah Norvell Eddy, daughter of J. A. Eddy, a former El Paso resident, to John Elmer McKee in Denver on January 29. The bride and her family are well known in El Paso, having been formerly in residence on Colorado street. The bride's father was general manager of the Santa Fe and Northern railroad, one of the founders of the Teller club and other social organizations, and was known as the founder of Cloudford, where he spent his summers with his family each year that he resided in El Paso. The wedding of his daughter was one of the social events of the winter season in Denver society. The Denver Post, on the day of the wedding, printed more than a column description of the wedding, together with a large cut of the bride party immediately following the wedding. The wedding occurred in the immaculate conception cathedral and Rev. Father Bostett performed the service. The bride was attended by Miss Katherine Eddy, her sister, who was maid of honor. The bride entered the cathedral on the arm of her father, her gown is described as being light, white satin, a straight piece of satin forming a panel from front and back, running from neck to hem in princess lines, caught in slightly at the waistline in deep folds held with clusters of orange blossoms. The sides of the skirt, which was rather short, were of satin veiled with white tulle, the tulle being gathered into full, straight skirt effect. A long square train fell from the shoulders and was held in place by gold lace. The sleeves were long and of tulle with the neck of the gown cut in simple Dutch effect. Her long tulle veil was arranged with a trail across the back of her head, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids with a shower of lilies of the valley.

KILLS HIS ENEMIES WITH A SILENT GUN

The picture shows Harold Severy, the deranged motorist, at the scene of the shooting, after he had been arrested at Schenectady, N. Y., who has confessed to shooting four people in Albany with his "silent gun" and the weapon, a 16 inch sawed off 22 caliber rifle fitted with a Maxim silencer with which he did the shooting.

Severy was taken to Albany after his arrest and in one of his victims, John McCormack and E. C. Kenney, identified him as the man who shot them. James Ewing, another victim, has died of his wounds.

The Albany police comment on the maniacal ingenuity, worthy of a creation of Edgar Allan Poe, which led Severy to invent the deadly silent and invisible gun to do his supposed enemies to death. His father was an inventor and he believed the boy inherited much of his mechanical genius.

WELL, STRONG AND HEALTHY

Doctor Recommended Cardui To Build Up Her Strength. Said It Was A Fine Medicine.

Madam, Ila.—"About 18 years ago, after the birth of my child," writes Madame C. Hillard, of this place, "I was in a very low and run-down state of health, and was very weak. It was then that I took Cardui. It was treating me, and he told me to take it to build up my strength. Said it was a fine medicine. I took 2 bottles and it built me up. After the use of 2 I was greatly improved in flesh, strength and health, in fact was entirely well, not took one more bottle to be sure it's taken enough. I was able to do my work and was a well, strong woman. I highly recommend it to you. I have never had bad health since, have been well and strong and healthy ever since."

Cardui the woman's tonic, is a medicine prepared from vegetable, medicinal ingredients, which have been found to exert a tonic, building influence.

For over 45 years this medicine has been used by the women of this country, and the thousands of letters, which come to us every year, are proof of its real therapeutic, beneficial medicinal value.

If you are in need of a remedy for womanly ills, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.
